

Boskowitz Honor Due

Anselm Boskowitz, a native Oregonian and the oldest living past president of Portland B'nai B'rith, will be honored at a dinner at 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 6, in the Mayfair Room of the Hotel Benson.

The Jewish National Fund, land reclamation agency for the State of Israel, will honor Boskowitz on his 90th birthday at the annual Chanukah banquet.

Boskowitz is a founder of the Anti-Defamation League and is among the founders of the Jewish Community Center, Jewish Home for the Aged, B'nai B'rith Summer camp, Jewish Education Association and the Hebrew Benevolent Association.

Lt. Col. Samuel Mor, former leader in Haganah, and a graduate of the Israeli Military College, now emissary to the Jewish National Fund, will be the dinner speaker.

Jewish Community Honors 'Patriarch'

Oregon's Jewish community honored its "patriarch" Sunday night in celebration of his 90th birthday.

Anselm Boskowitz, a lifelong Oregon resident and indefatigable worker on behalf of Jewish causes, was the honored guest at a dinner sponsored by the Jewish National Fund at Portland's Benson Hotel.

Born in Union County, Boskowitz has been a Portland resident 78 years. He is one of the founders of Portland's Jewish Community Center 60 years ago and has been active in Jewish community activities and organizations in Portland, for about 70 years.

Sunday night he was honored for "his general service to the community and for his concern for its organizations and institutions."
