
DEATH OF MEDICO

A doctor who was the official medical practitioner for the American Joint Distribution Committee in Prague after the Second World War died in Sydney last week.

He was Dr Otto Kraus, a leading medico, a pathologist at the Royal North Shore Hospital and a Fellow of the American College of Chest Physicians.

Dr Kraus was the official doctor for the Jewish congregation in Prague, where he greatly helped the sick concentration camp inmates after their liberation and assisted them to migrate.

Married in Israel, Dr Kraus came to Australia in 1955 to be with his two stepsons living in Sydney.
